

Calendar of Events

pres@nystesol.org

May 31, 2022

Technology Toolkit for Supporting ELLs Series: Session 3: Interactivity with Greg Bailey, Tec

03:15 PM - 04:15 PM EST

The world of technology for educators is always changing with new and exciting tools. This three-part series will introduce K-12 educators to various websites, tools, and apps that can be used by ENL teachers to enhance instruction. Upon completion of this series, participants will discover practical integration of technologies to enhance communication and translation, accessibility, interactivity, and engagement.

June 3, 2022

The humanistic classroom - strategies & activities to boost learner engagement with Khanh-D

04:00 PM - 05:00 PM EST

This session focuses on activities that encourage student-centered learning in the language classroom. We explore strategies and tasks that support both individuality and diversity, encourage discovery and promote collaborative learning. Participants will try out some of these activities and we will follow up with a discussion of how these activities boost learner engagement.

Khanh-Duc has an MA in TESOL, teaches at the University of Siegen in Germany, and has an interest in creative assessment and learner autonomy. She teaches grammar, writing, pronunciation and teacher language in the teacher education program. Khanh-Duc was the guest editor for the August 2021 issue of the online teaching magazine, HLT Mag, also known as Humanising Language Teaching, by Pilgrims. Here is the link to it: <https://www.hlomag.co.uk/aug21/>

June 14, 2022

Shift the Landscape with Digital Storytelling with Heather Rubin

03:30 PM - 05:00 PM EST

Bring the creative art of storytelling to a new generation of students. This webinar will provide an introduction to designing digital storytelling projects that incorporate multiple modalities, develop multiliteracy skills while promoting language development. Learn how to engage your entire learning community in this creative and fun digital media experience.

Heather Rubin is an administrator for the NYSED L.I. RBERN at Eastern Suffolk BOCES. She has over 20 years of experience supporting academic achievement and equity for English Language Learners as a teacher, administrator, author, and presenter. Her book "Digital-Age Teaching for English Learners 2ed.", was published in January 2022, with co-authors Lisa Estrada and Andrea Honigsfeld.

November 3, 2022
- November 5, 2022

NYS TESOL 52nd Annual Conference, November 3-5, 2022

08:30 AM - 05:00 PM EST

NYS TESOL is thrilled to announce that the 52nd Annual Conference will be hybrid, with virtual and in-person options. We currently have a LIMITED NUMBER of seats available! You may register for:

Virtual Day (Thursday, November 3) - Participate from the comfort of your own home via zoom. ($85 for members / $95 for non-members)

Virtual Day (Thursday, November 3) plus ONE in-person day (either Friday, November 4 or Saturday, November 5) at the Sonesta Hotel in White Plains, NY. ($265 for members / $295 for non-members)

Virtual Day (Thursday, November 3) plus TWO in-person days (Friday, November 4 AND Saturday, November 5) at the Sonesta Hotel in White Plains, NY. ($349 for members / $379 for non-members)

Friday Night Dinner and Party ($50 add-on)

ALL Conference Registrations include 2023 NYS TESOL membership. In-person days include breakfast and lunch.

If you are a current NYS TESOL member, please log-in before registering in order to ensure you receive a discounted rate.

There will be NO on-site registration this year.

Registration rates will increase by $50 on October 1st.*